Existent and Inexistent.

4. Prime has always been. It transcends the Idea of nothingness as “no-thing” is an Emanation of Prime.
5. Prime corresponds to Kether and shares some attributes but is not another title for Kether as Kether was crystallized, seeded by and from, the AIN SOF. Prime, however, is the Source of Source, the Source of AIN SOF and all things.
6. Prime is an instrument of God, and is not just a Sphere of Magick, Sphere of Science, or an Instrument of God but is God in an Emanative sense. However, God is merely an Emanation of Prime.

- 21. Prime is Time. This is Prime; Time Existent.

- 29. Prime contains everything in essence, in potentiality of creation.
- 30. Prime contains non-being as well and is the Source of the Qabalistic AIN.

- 34. Prime is the Abode of the Element Holy for the Righteous Psyker and the Element Ruin for the Wicked Psyker.
- 35. Prime is the abode of the Element Truth.
- 36. From Prime, issueth every Sphere of Magick and Science, of which there is truly an Infinity.
- 37. Reality is one Emanation from Prime. It is of a class as Love is of a class of Emotion. Think this through. There are infinite Emotions, of different variety, yet they are all Emotions.

- 38. Classes are a structure to Emanations. There are an Endless, Infinite Number of Classes.
- 39. Time is an Emanation from Prime. Time is the Element Continuum.
- 40. There are Infinite Continuum's.
- 41. Time is of a class. There are Infinite Constituents.
- 42. Prime is that which directs, governs and associates all things, Everything, Everyone and Everywhere.
- 43. Prime is Everything in Essence and Potentiality. In Potential meaning as an Idea that can become or Manifest in Mordim (the sphere of Reality in Action).

- 44. Prime is Everything in Actuality. In Action meaning as an Idea, an Element, that has become a Phenomenon in the Sphere Mordim.
- 45. Prime is the Abode of the Elemental Roots. The Roots of the Elements are the origin of the Elements. That from which they spring. Every Element has a Root in Prime.
- 46. From the Abode of Prime, the Elements spring forth, issued by a Consciousness in Multiple of Mind that is existent throughout all Space, Time, and Beyond.
- 47. Prime is the Abode of the Godhead of the Psyker. Known in other Systems as the Higher Self. This Godhead resides with God and is in fact God as God is all things Existent and Inexistent.

- 48. Life is an Emanation from Prime, of course, of a Class.
- 49. Without Prime, there cannot be Anything. Understand this jewel of Wisdom and Comprehend it so.

other energies that exist. Know however, that there are Infinite Types of Energy, many have only discovered some. Unmanifest it is raw Energy that can take any Form, even that of Matter.

- 53. Prime controls the power from which all things spring. With Prime Magick, the Psyker can Create, Destroy and Permute all things using Will.
- 54. Prime is the Supernal Substance. The Prima Materia.
- 55. The Magick of Prime is that of creating Spheres and the Classes of Emanations that they contain.
- 56. Prime Manifest represents the Crystallization into Manifestation of that which is at first unknowable to Created Being.

- 57. In Prime, the division into pairs of opposites is in a logical manner and that of Idea in potential. Consider the Idea of Pain and Pleasure, their Unity bringing a Definite Mixture but each always Existing in a Clear, Singular Unity of Self: that of Pain or Pleasure.
- 58. Prime is the Causeless Cause.
- 59. The Tree of Life of the Qabalists can be found in Prime. Here, the Ets Chayyim dwells in potential. The Four Worlds are in potential, as are the Sephiroth and Paths and Gates.
- 60. Prime is the reservoir, the wellspring, the fountainhead of limitless Power.

- 61. Prime in Totality is Eternal and Immortal. Yet, Eternity and Immortality are simply two Emanations from an Infinity of Emanations.
- 62. The Angels of Prime are innumerable as indeed are the Archangels and other “Angelic” entities. Legion (in Completion, Contingently) is the Element of Psyking here.
- 63. The Prime Beings are Without End in Number and Beyond Ken. It is Infinity, which is the Foundation of Emanations.
- 64. The Gods of Prime are Innumerable and Varied in their Assortment. Gods (in Completion, Contingently) is the Element of Psyking here.

- 65. All the Elements of Book One of the Elemental Arcanas find their Archetype in Prime. Indeed, all the Elements of every Book of the Arcanas find their Archetype in Prime.
- 66. Prime is an Imagined Thing. Indeed, the Imagination and anything that it can concoct can be realized in Mordim.
- 67. Prime has a Core and it is True Source.
- 68. Force and Form exist in Prime, in potential and are merely two Emanations from Endlessness of Emanations. Prime is endless.
- 69. Prime is One, Two, Three and all things into Infinity and Beyond.

- 70. Prime, the Source, is Concealed from the Unenlightened Entity.
- 71. In all numbers greater than One, there is a unit of One. One plus One makes Two. One plus One plus One makes Three. Here, is the Secret to the Hidden Potencies of Prime.
- 72. Prime is the Abode of the Abstract Idea. Indeed, it is the Source of all Ideas that Can and Cannot Be.
- 73. Prime is the Abode of the Whirling Forces Inexistent. Mordim being the Abode of the Whirling Forces Existent.
- 74. Prime is “beyond” Time. Indeed, Time is an Emanation from Prime. Thus, Prime exists even when Time has not been Emanated. Can you see the different Continuums?

- 75. Prime is the Abode of all Rituals, Spells and Artifices that Was, Is and Will Be.
- 76. Think of Prime as the Source, the Core, the Seed, in potential, and the other Spheres as Conduits and Controls existent.
- 77. From Prime, issueth the Static Paths, the Dynamic Paths and the Gates of which there is Infinity.

- 83. Prime is the Action as a Plan, which is in Potential.
- 84. Prime is the mystery of the “Many and the One” concealed.
- 85. Prime is a Concept Existent. Remember God is Prime and Prime is God. You are a concept existent. Thus, Prime being the concept of everything in and as one, you can see how God is also you. The concept is All Things at Once with Soul, Life-force, and Intelligence and Everything else that Is and Isn't, beyond ken. However, God is merely an Emanation of Prime. Thus, Prime truly is beyond God, the Metagods and the Prime Beings.

86. Prime is Omnificent.

87. Prime is Omnipresent.

88. Prime is Omnifarious.

89. Prime is Omnipotent.

90. Prime is Omniscient.

91. Prime has always been aware of itself. It did not spawn from nothingness but has always been. It can emanate nothingness and indeed it has done so before.

- 92. At the Core of Prime is a locus of Permanence. It is alive and is God, the heart of the many headed Dragon.
- 93. Prime is not only the Source of Power to the Righteous but was also to the Wicked. It is why many, particularly on my planet Earth, are born helpless.
- 94. God's mind is divided and split like a dragon with many heads and a singular mind to each head. Remember, Prime is God. One of these heads is evil, which is why there is the Emanation of the Element Pain and Rape into their Respective Phenomenons.

- 95. And so did the heads of the dragon war with each other to consume the Metaverse and Attain Reign of Destiny.
- 96. Fortunately, the Heart of the Dragon, beat Blood of Death to the Wicked and blood of life to the Righteous. And thus the Wicked Head of the Dragon was Slain.
- 97. And so the remaining Locus of the Element Power that Vivifies the Wicked Withers into Death into which state it will remain Forever and Ever.
- 98. Yet, during the War, many Evil Mortals Souls were Risen to Reign, for a time, as the Gods of the Righteous. Thus the Emanation of the Rapist, Murderer of the Righteous, Enslaver of the Righteous and Molester of the child. This is the Call of the Dark God, in Prime.

- 99. Thus, the truest Pantheon is Prime in Multiplicity. The Heart of the Dragon cannot be Killed. For it is the root of all things and for it to kill itself, it would have to Emanate its Death. And to Emanate its own Death, in Totality, would only result in the Death of all things as Everything is Fueled by It.
- 100. Prime Manifest represents the Crystallization into Manifestation of that which is at first Unknowable to Created Being.
- 101. The Evil in Prime Conceals a Portion of Prime that is truly Good, but not the Point, as that cannot be Concealed or Controlled but by the One: the Heart of the Dragon.

102. The Heart of the Dragon is also the Body of the Dragon. The One who is Many. The One who is All.

103. With an understanding of Emanations, one can Emanate the State of Existence that enables one to Comprehend Paradox (such as having always been, without beginning). This state of existence is known as Yove.

104. States of Existence constitute a being. Some Entities, for example, cannot Imagine Ideas or cannot Feel Emotions or Reason with the Intellect.

Can you see the States of Existence you lack? There being an Infinite amount of States of Existence like Reason and Imagination, can you see how you lack the Multitude?

- 105. Every symbol is a symbol of Prime in some aspect or manifestation of Prime.
- 106. Prime interacting with Prime is known as the Element Pattern.
- 107. The Magick of Prime is that of creating Spheres and the Classes of Emanations that they contain.
- 108. The Magick of Prime is the Magick of All.
- 109. Prime is an Imagined Thing. Indeed, the Imagination and anything that it can concoct can be realized in Mordim.

- 110. With Mastery of Prime, comes the Ability to Conjure Material Creations from the Infinite, and create Cosmoses. Indeed, the very Realm you are within was created from the Prime Sphere.
- 111. With mastery of the Prime Sphere, a Psyker can give ones Psykings a Glaze of Permanence.
- 112. All Psykings must begin with an Invocation of Prime. This will call upon the Godhead of the Psyker which will begin the process of fueling whatever it is that which needs to change. This ensures that the Psyking will be in harmony with the Thought Divine. If the Psyking is not in harmony with the Thought Divine, the Elements at play will work in opposition to the Psyker.

- 113. Prime Magick is the understanding of what Prime will and won't allow, originating from the first Locus of Permanence. For example, a battery can power the Human Flashlight of Earth, however, a Piece of Wood shaped exactly like the Battery, and Cannot. The Root of this Phenomenon lies in Prime. It is an Emanation that is vivified by the currents of Prime. It is Prime Magick, and Psykings, however, that can alter this phenomenon.
- 114. Kether is within Prime. It is pseudo-source. A thing of great Good and great Evil.
- 115. Prime Magick can be used to strengthen the Power of other Magickal undertakings, the Psykers power over any of the infinite Spheres, and anything that Is and Isn't.

- 116. The Magick of Prime is that of reducing Spheres to their most base form, that of pure being in potential. Or, using Will to bring a Sphere from potential to realization in the Sphere of Mordim or another Sphere.
- 117. To develop Prime control and sense, simply understand that Will is Control.
- 118. As Prime control begins to develop, one can tap into the endless reservoir of Quintessence and use it to fuel ones Magicks and Psykings.
- 119. What Was, What Is, and What Will Be. These are three powers, from Infinity, of Prime. But, what is the Ruling Power?

- 120. As Prime senses begin to develop, one can detect the use of Prime Magick in ones Sphere of Sensation.
- 121. Ascension Meditation is the type of meditation that brings an understanding of Prime, the Source.
- 122. Meditations on Prime are illuminating to the Psyker. As they are ordered to reveal things to the Psyker in a scale of importance chosen by the Godhead of the Psyker.
- 123. The Psyker does not believe. He knows. He does not know by believing. He does not know by feeling. He knows by perceiving the Element Truth. If you find a belief kindling within your mind as to whether or not this Arioth speaks Truth, it is clear you have not perceived the Element Truth. Meditate deeply on Prime instead of relying on beliefs of Heart or reasons of Mind.

- 124. Meditations on Prime will bring an understanding of Emanations, Scripting, Channeling, Quantum Being, States of Existence and Paradise.
- 125. Indeed, meditations on Prime will bring understanding of everything, in time.
- 126. Meditations on Prime will strengthen the Body of Light of the Psyker. A strong Body of Light is needed to withstand hostile, malevolent forces which are the things of nightmares.
- 127. With great power of Perception, comes the ability to see Prime. It is already evident around you, having been forged into a reality of which you are a part. And, if you are a being of Consciousness with or without form, then it is your being which has been wrought by the power of Prime. This sense of Prime develops and evolves with Vabakabae Meditation.

128. Prime is burning with the Sha Ghadel. This is a sacred fire that burns with the brilliance of a multitude of colors, both known and unknown, and, once invoked, will burn from the Body, Mind, Spirit and else, purifying and evolving the Psyker into a Quantum Being. To invoke the Sha Ghadel, simply begin Vabakabae Meditation.

129. The Vice of Prime is Metaphysical Slavery. If you must work for Emanation, you are a Slave. Vabakabae meditation will bring, in time, an end to this enslavement.

- 130. Sense Prime is the Psyker's Will manifest to sense. One may not possess the natural ability but this can be cultivated with meditation.
- 131. To understand how a thing has always been, to experience it, requires the state of existence known as Yove. Vabakabae meditation will bring this state of existence into Manifestation.
- 132. The Psyker does not rely on one glyph to represent Prime, but builds them spontaneously to structure his understanding of Prime as he sees fit.
- 133. Every Symbol is a Symbol of Prime in some Aspect.

- 134. All the Rituals of the Ritual Arcana exist in Prime, in Potential.
- 135. Indeed, all Rituals that were, are and will be, have their abode within the Prime Sphere.
- 136. Prime is the dwelling place of all Elements in Potential.
- 137. All Elements have a Root in Prime and take action in Mordim.
- 138. What Was of the Element in Prime is that which was seen to take place, in the past, in the Sphere of Mordim (the Sphere of Action, where Events take place and Magick takes shape and manifests).

- 139. That Element which is What Is in Prime is that which is currently manifesting or being acted out, in the Current of the Continuum.
- 140. What Will Be of the Element in Prime is that which will come to pass in the Future of the Continuum.
- 141. Prime is Transcendent Unity.
- 142. Prime is The One is All and the All is One is Prime.
- 143. The One is All: God because God, as a living concept, is all things that can possibly be. However, God is the Primal Power, the Heart of the Dragon and thus the Souls are Gods, not the God or the King of the Gods.

- 144. Transcendent Unity is the beginningless beginning of an endless cascade of time.
- 145. Time within Time is Transcendent Unity.
- 146. Prime is the Source of Moral Alignment.
- 147. As a Sphere of Science, Prime is the adobe of all Sciences Inexistent or Existent in the Sphere of Mordim and the Source of all Hypotheses, Theories and Laws.
- 148. Prime is Inner Revelation.
- 149. Prime is the Inner Constant.
- 150. Prime is the Source of the Metaphysic Trinities.

- 151. Prime is the underlying Nature of the fabric of all things.
- 152. Prime is the Source of the Prime Weapon which is that which is worse than that which is worse than pain into Infinity without end and beyond.
- 153. Prime is the Source of the Internal Self.
- 154. Prime is the Source of the External Self.
- 155. Prime is the Source of Wisdom.
- 156. Prime is the Source of Understanding.

- 172. Prime is the Source and Abode of the Hidden Knowledge.
- 173. Prime is all things that constitute God and Gods.
- 174. Prime dwells above the head of every Human Being. It is a basketball sized Orb of radiant Luminance, posited inches above the Cranium and encapsulating Kether of the Tree of Life.
